

Valuing Our Heritage Forum

Panel Debate with Election Candidates

Thursday 15 February 6-7.30pm

Allan Scott Auditorium, Hawke Building

UniSA City West Campus, 55 North Terrace, Adelaide

With the State election looming, the National Trust of South Australia is convening a panel of election candidates to debate the risks and opportunities ahead for South Australia's heritage.

Christine Trenorden, former judge and Senior Judge of the Environment, Resources and Development Court, will lead a Q&A session with our panel of politicians responding to your questions about the future of our heritage.

Possible issues for discussion include:

- innovative adaptive reuse of heritage places
- economic value of heritage
- heritage tourism
- threats to heritage protections
- relaxation of planning controls
- loss of community input to development decisions

You can propose a question for the panel in advance by email to heritagewatch@nationaltrustsa.org.au no later than 11 February.

The panel will comprise:

The Hon Mark Parnell MLC, Parliamentary Leader of the Greens SA

Mr David Speirs MP, Shadow Minister for Environment, Member for Bright

The Hon Ian Hunter, MLC, Minister for Sustainability, Environment and Conservation

The Hon Lord Mayor of Adelaide, Martin Haese

The Hon Robert Brokenshire, MLC, Australian Conservatives

Ms Karen Hockley, SA Best candidate for Davenport

Mr John Darley, Advance SA

Find out from these candidates for election in 2018 how they will ensure that our unique heritage is protected, preserved and utilised.

Doors open from 5.30pm. Admission is free, but places are limited. Reserve your seat now via the Hawke Centre website or directly at: <http://e.mybookingmanager.com/E12418555029615>
